COMFORT.

Tris an ill wind that blows good nobody," says the proverb, and the programme of non-interference and the abandonment of progressive policy which the new Government have inaugurated is likely to verify its truth. There are three classes of residents in China. Thos who would maintain peace at any price without ensuring respect; those would maintain peace by a judicious 50,000, and it is reported that she will be employment of force when necessary, Bangkok. combined with honest and fair dealing on our own part; and thirdly, those who miral Baron Petz, and the Austrian steam would be only too glad to see a long and bloody war between China and a European power as the sole remaining means Performance to of reviving the "good old times" when fifteen shilling rifle fetched fifty dollars or somewhat about that figure, and when fortunes were to be made by trading with. or betraying, as interest dictated, either in November last, left Galle for the Little of the combative powers. Of the first class there are few adherents to be found even at home, and it is certain that a still smaller number exist in China. The opinions of the second class, who form the majority of our commercial and professional residents, of our officials and even our missionaries, have within the last few weeks been pronounced wrong two lights, the one fixed and the other reand absurd, though the government hesitates to openly avow a peace-at-anyprice policy-apparently unconscious that their denunciation of recent acts necessarily places them in the ranks of that school. GRACE EGERTON's entertainment last night was even a more marked success than the previous one, and was attended by a numerous and appreciative audience. THE NEW TREATY. (Conclusion,)

It only required that on each side these rights should be scrupulously respected. and the Transit certificate system might have secured the plain object of the Treaty Unfortunately, there has been a want of good faith and honest execution on both sides. We know enough of the variable and in many cases excessive, charges levied by the Chinese authorities on Foreign trade, both under the head of Lekin and barrier or Transit dues. In Kiangan and Fohkien the Treaty stipulations have been persistently violated by the Provincial Authorities. The report of the Commissioner of Customs at Ningpo, quoted by Mr. Robertson, and repeated two successive years, in an official document, printed and published, and, so far as I know, never contradicted or questioned, leaves, I fear, as little doubt on the other. Hence, the total failure of the Transit certificate system, so carefully devised for the protection of Foreign Trade, is due to bad faith on both sides. Whatever may be the abuse and malversation on the part of the Chinese local authorities, we are in no position to lay the whole blame upon them, as pointed out in my first Circular. In the one province where the system was carried out in good faith by the authorities, there grew up a traffic in transit passes by Foreigners, every step in which was a deliberate fraud. It is impossible, in presence of such a system, not to agree entirely with the writer, when he save that "it is lowering to the honour of Foreign Governments to have privileges, extorted in the name of justice, abused for the private benefit of a few individuals." Why no steps have been taken at Ningpo to bring the law to bear upon those engaging in such traffic, both Chinese and Foreigners, by the officials on the spot, is yet to be explained. But is is probable that where public opinion does not supply a sufficient check, by branding them with a stigma of dishonesty, no legal machinery could be efficiently brought bear for the punishment of those concerned Be this as it may, it is clear that if Foreign Governments cannot answer for the honest dealing and good faith of their own subjects in the observance of Treaty stipulations, they can hardly hold the Chinese Government responsible for a similar failure. They have naturally and fairly demanded some security for a better observance of obligations on our side as the conditions of a more perfect fulfilment on theirs, and no such security can If Transit certificates are liable to be sold to Chinese with a fraudulent inten to cover goods not Foreign property, it is obvious that the production of such a certificate is no proof that the goods are entitled to be exempt from taxation, and wide door is thus opened to equal bad faith on the part of the local officials whose busitrade duly is collected; and thus the whole system of Transit passes is rendered of no effect and its object is defeated. Such being the true state of affairs, the is no question of such vital importance to the development of Foreign trade in the interior, and the true interests of the merchants engaged in it, as that of the abuses on both sides, which render ineffective al Treaty provisions. The Chinese revenue and Foreign trade are slike prejudiced, and neither can possibly gain by perseverance in such flagitious courses. It is imperative on both Governments to find a remedy. as I have said, anything of material value is to result from the approaching revision. The suggestions hitherto received, whether from the Chamber of Commerce the object. They may be summed up un der the following heads:

The recommendation conveyed in last communication of the Chamber, does not essentially differ from this; namely that "whatever charges may be agreed upon to be charged in the shape of Transit dues, shall not be paid into the Imperial Treasury, but shall be handed over or collected by the provincial authorities at the place of shipment or discharge These letter are held responsible for the due administration of their Governments, and must raise a revenue; and in cases date state that the Republicans have car- where goods pass through more than one Province, a method of dividing the amount of duty between the different authorities represented might be devised." With the addition that " all goods of foreign import, by whomsoever owned," should be covered by the transit pass.

The objection to this on the part of Chinese Government is two-fold. that it would introduce confusion into the whole system of Provincial accounts and fiscal administration; and secondly, that the Provincial Treasuries already receive too much by taxes on trade, and have no March 31st (afternoon).—The title to appropriate such dues.

By this scheme the whole transit system, which has worked so ill for all parties, would be swept away. British and all Foreign goods being easily distinguishable, and being made free by the very fact of their being foreign, they need no certificate to cover them. It will be sufficient to declare them foreign goods. Native duce under the protection of an Imperial tariff publicly notified. will, it is believed, take care of itself far more effectually than has hitherto been possible under transit certificates with their abuses : and transit duty certificate, will be required on shipment. Foreign goods even, entering into consumption at the Ports, will under such a rule obtain, by the one payment of 21 per cent, exemption from Lekin or any ther local taxes, which have hitherto to a much larger amount; and so their importer will unquestionably benefited by the difference. Finally. conflict with Provincial Authorities nterests, owing to the exclusion of a portion of the traffic in native produce from taxation to the prejudice of the provincial revenue, will be at an end. In the withdrawal of all pretension to preferential conditions of trade for the Foreign merchant over the native, the claims of the former to be treated with perfect fairness are strengthened, and his chances of obtain ing it very much improved if not absolutely The privilege of the preferential luties has never been contemplated by either of the contracting parties to treaty; and while there can be no doub such a pretension would be victous in principle, it would be no less certainly impolitic and mischievous in practice, defeating

4. To collect the duties inland by the extension of the Foreign Inspectorate, is recommended by the Hongkong Chamber as "the only method which could be devised to cancel and adjust the multifarious excesses of the land revenue department while "inland residence and its adjuncts are held by Messrs Jardine Matheson & Co., in their memorial from the same "as the true remedies for "these

The objections to these proposals are numerous and some of them conclusive. Against the first it is urged that to graff an Imperial Foreign Inspectorate upon the Inland Revenue would be to vitiate whole theory of provincial Government and throw into still worse confusion the working of the provincial administration and responsibility throughout the Empire Were it the very best posible remedy for the one abuse aimed at and every other, the Central Government is totally incapable of undertaking such sweeping and fundamental changes, and entirely averse to any attempt of this nature. As for inland residence and its adjuncts, there exist equally insurmountable objections in the present state of Foreign relations with China, even apart from the question of extra-territoriality. So of inland Steam Navigation and Railroads. Whether Merchanta are 'disappointed,' 'dissatisfied or incensed as has latterly been represented, - whichever of these terms may be finally selected as best expressing the state of their feelings, I venture to hope the great majority will see that no one of these can be justified by the facts of the case, because they are neither international nor treaty rights. To claim as such the navigation of all the inland waters, which neither separate nor traverse other countries in their course, is wholly without warrant in any system of international law. No Western Power has ever conceded right to any other, even when there is no question of extra-territorial privileges. No freaties have ever sanctioned such a principle. However satisfactorily it might be shown that in the present instance such a concession would be an advantage to the Foreign merchant, and possibly the means of conferring a benefit on China, this would not entitle any foreign power to claim it as a right. The Roman Catholic missionaries the existence of a nation's full judgment were invited, but declined, in such matters; for a nation may voluntarily wave some portion of its liberty which is by nature inherent in it. Such being the broad principles, which a reference to any text book on the law of nations will show, universally accepted as lying at the foundation of all international intercourse among civilized states, it is obvious that we cannot depart from them in dealing with China. To impose all the obligations and deny her all the privileges of civilized nations, would be an unheard of pretension. Such at all events has never been our policy, and H. M.'s Government has only recently given public assurance that it never will be under any circumstances. In requiring the faithful fulfilment of those obl gations, we engage to respect all her rights as an Independent and Sovereign State. Both rest the fact upon the same foundation. Nor do I doubt that British merchants as a body, freely admit these to be the conditions under which alone revision of the treaty can be carried I only recall the fact in this place because they have been somewhat overooked in many of the memorials which have reached me touching the advantages to be sought and the wants of trade. is in the interest of those who are engage in the trade with China, that they should not misapprehend either their own position or that of their Government, and so indulge in false hopes as to the possib esults of pending negotiations for the benefit of all concerned. It is with this object that I have endeavured, in reference more especially to this question of transit dues, to give some additional information in the hope that it may serve to guide the Chamber in their deli berations and assist any others interested in the Trade, in arriving at a right conclusion on all matters connected with the solution of the difficult problem presented by our trading relations with an Eastern Empire, situated as China is at the present

A RIOT IN JAVA.

The Straits Times of April 15 says :-By latest Java papers received from Batavia, we have the following account of the late insurrection which took place at Bekassie. It is said to have been owing to the eccentricities of a lunatic Malay, named Natta, residing at Tambong, in the district of Meester Cornelis, who declared to his countrymen that Tambong, the property of a wealthy Chinese, belonged to him. The Malay was taken into custody by the Dutch authorities who had him removed to the Hospital at Meester Cornelis, whither 160 of his fellow-men armed with weapons went shortly after for the purpose of rescuing him. They were met on the road by Mr De Kuyper, Assistant Resident of Meester Cornelis with a party of police. who ordered them to deliver up their arms which they refused to do, whereupon Mr De Kuyper fired upon the assailants with his revolver, and desired his followers to do the same. As soon as a few of the insurrectionists were killed, the rest became enraged and attacked Mr De Kuyper and his followers, and succeeded in killing that gentleman and eight of his men. This took place early on the morning of Saturday, 3rd April. Only one man of Mr De Kuyper's followers escaped, and he went to Meester Cornelis, where a large number of Dutch soldiers are garrisoned, and reported the circumstance to the Commanding Officer, who sent 150 men in search of the usurgents. They were captured the same afternoon and taken back to Bekassie. It is said, however, that by some means they managed to effect their escape, but this is merely a rumor and requires confirmation. It is also stated that a disturbance had taken place, between Meester Cornelis and Buitenzorg, owing to some communications having taken place among the inhabitants of Depok. The community of Buitenzorg were requested by the Commanding Officer to proceed to Meester Cornelis to take shelter in the garrison there.

LATEST COOLIE CIRCUMSTANCE

The following, from the Sourabaya Courant is the "new way of mutinying" to which we referred last night, though it does not soom to have been quite "bloodless." Our Java contemporary says:-

There lately arrived at Samurang by the Rotterdam barque Marie Elizabeth, the crew of the French vessel Tamaris, Captain

The crew, by their own account, had been obliged to quit the ship in 7.S. and 90 12. The said ship was bound from Macao to Havana, having on board 300 Chinese coolies, who probably on their going on board were unaware of whither the vessel would direct her course, and very seen after her astting sail, they made known their desire to turn the rudder and return to Macao: No effect was however given to this. Apparently, they yielded, but one day, when but very few of them, if any, are likely the Captain and interpreter were between decks, they were both laid hold of by the mutinous Chinese, who tightly pinioned them; with the object it appeared of afterwards making themselves masters of the

The interpreter however, a knowing man, held himself as if he would make common cause with the mutineers; and on his promise to procure them fire-arms, he was Having come on deck, he immediately informed the first mate of the danger which threatened the crew of the ship. The latter in all haste took vigorous measures Most of the coolies were below the deck and those who were above, were driven below : the unwilling ones being shot down and the crew remained masters of the deck keeping watch over the hatchways with loaded muskets. Meanwhile, consulting with the Captain who lay pinioned below, between decks, as to what should be done

THE TEA TRADE AT CANTON.

HE following Notification has been is sued by Her Britannic Majesty's Couat Canton:-Notification

No. 2.

BRITISH CONSULATE, CANTON, February 26, 1869.

Representations having been made to the uindersigned with reference to the difficul tier experienced in obtaining the due ful filment of contracts through the failure of the Teamen and Brokers to supply Teas in bulk according to the muster upon which they were purchased, he brought the matter, in conjunction with the Consul for the United States, before the Chinese authorities, with a view to devising some mode by which the evil complained of might-be rec-HAS on hand a large Stock of COAL of tified. It is obvious that the remedy lay best quality, and is prepared to sup- to a great extent in the hands of the purply Steamers and Sailing Vessels with quick chasers themselves, by the refusal of the despatch at Current Rates, or deliver the Teas if they were inferior to the samples; same under Contract, at Hongkong and any but difficulties interpose in following this course, such as Tonnage having been en-The Depot drawing supplies from the gaged, advices having gone forward, and others unnecessary to mention. Moreover rior article, free of the Surface Coal that as the rejection of a chop was little likely to cause less or damage to the Teaman ow ing to market fluctuations, no unwilling ness was felt on his part to such a result; in fact, it was an encouragement to fraudulent practices. The undersigned was therefore of opinion that compelling the fulfilment of contracts or enforcing what is termed an "equitable cut" for inferior quality, were necessary measures, if trade was to be conducted on anything like sound basis; he therefore directed his attention to devising a mode of arbitration or | Commerce. proceeding by means of which the expenses and delay of a Chinese court of law might Rev. W. R. BEACH. be avoided. It is not worth while to detail the particulars of the proposition he made. as, after long negociations, it was rejected by the Tea guild, who met it by a counter proposition that if Tea when delivered was not equal to muster, it should be rejected Seeing that no amicable arrangement could be arrived at, the undersigned, in conjunc papers, Clothes, &c., will be most tion with the Consul for the United States, requested the Chinese authorities to notify to the Teamen, brokers, and others, that the utmost rigour of the law would be enforced in all cases of fraudulent practices, and he hopes that the Proclamation which has been issued accordingly, a copy translation of which is annexed, will have the effect intended, by shewing the parties against whom it is directed that they will not escape with impunity from the consequences of their misdeeds.

(Signed) D. B. ROBERTSON,

Proclamation by CHEN, Magistrate of the Nanhai District, and YANG, Magistrate of the P'wangyu District :-

We have received instructions from hi-Honor the Financial Commissioner, embos dying orders from his Excellency the Viceroy in tonor as follow :--"The Viceroy received a communication the 20th August last from the British Consul. Mr Robertson, to the effect that he has been addressed by the British merchants at Cauton with reference to the great loss and detriment to their trade caused by the inferior qualities of the Teas supplied by the Teamen, notwithstanding their contracts to deliver Tens according to muster. The practice appears to be that the Teabrokers take round samples of Teas, and the merchants after inspecting and tasting their qualities and arranging for the price to be paid for the chop; with the weight in piculs and the time of dolivery, engage tonnage by vessels proceeding to England and when the Teas agreed for arrive in Canton, they are found on inspection to be not only far inferior in quality to the sample supplied, but largely mixed with what may authorize apprentices to act temporaare called 'lie-teas,' or leaves of plants of | rily and within certain limits, as Pilots all kinds prepared to imitate the genuine | provided they have received certificates of practice, and it is necessary that some mea- men sures should be taken to put an end to the frauds which are thus perpetrated. He therefore urges that measures be devised with this and in view, etc., etc. The U. S. Consul, Mr King, has also made a similar representation. On receipt of the foregoing the Viceroy ordains that a notification be issued to the Tea dealers with injunctions to be laid upon them for their obedience." The Magistrates being in receipt of the above instructions, have to issue a notification in pursuance of their tenor; and we do therefore accordingly proclaim for the instruction of all members of the Trade, that it is an obvious duty to make honesty and good faith the guiding principles of commerce with foreign merchants. and that to cherish fraudulent designs can in no wise be permitted. They should, moreover, bear in mind that the bulk of the Tea export has been confined of late years to the ports of Fukien, whilst the local trade in Canton teas itself has at the same time languished in an unusual degree. If fraudulent practices in the way of false packing be further persisted in, not only will those guilty of such acts be liable to prosecution and thus incur the danger of arrest and of It actions for compensation, but the trade itself will continue to fall off daily, and the perceive on which side the real interest of the dealer actually lies. After the issue of this Notification, if the traders referred to fail to amend their ways, and still continue indulging in fraudulent practices, on complaint being lodged by foreign merchants, their crews at the Harbour Master's Office, they shall not only be required to make The science of Medicine has never before compensation, but shall further be visited with severe punishment, under the statute Boat" shall, with the number, be legibly to this wonderful Cintment, as it cures for assimilating the offence of obtaining money under false pretences with the crime
